Our Mission
We, the St. Anne Catholic Community, a transformed body of Christ with many parts, empowered by the Holy Spirit, will proclaim and spread the word of God:

+ by creating an environment that welcomes all;
+ by being faithful stewards of our time, talent and treasure;
+ by celebrating God’s love committed to giving food to the hungry, water to the thirsty;
+ clothing to the naked, shelter to the homeless and
+ by being the sign of unity and peace in the kingdom of God.

How can we live out our mission?

Faith, hope, and love remain, these three; but the greatest of these is love.
—1 Corinthians 13:13

AN ONGOING MISSION

In his hometown synagogue, Jesus’ neighbors are amazed by his words. Nevertheless, they remind each other, “Is this not Joseph’s son?” Surely the people know who he is. The carpenter’s son. The young man who had learned in this very synagogue. The boy down the street.

Conflict arises as Jesus begins to define himself in a new way. When he compares himself to the ancient prophets Elijah and Elisha the tensions grow. The tensions multiply when Jesus begins to tell of a new mission for God’s people: the good news of the scriptures is intended for all.

In his famous passage from the First Letter to the Corinthians, St. Paul reminds us of the eternal nature of love. Love does not come to an end. In today’s readings, we are reminded that, like love, Jesus’ mission cannot be contained. Jesus slips through the crowd of persecutors and moves on to new challenges. We are called to this same perseverance in the name of love.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The song of the angels, “Holy, Holy, Holy,” resounds from our lips at every Mass. There was a widespread belief in the first religions of the world that God stirred creation into being by a word, a song, a musical note. Music and a sense of God’s presence have always been inseparable. In the liturgy, your voice is invited into this song as the priest names the reasons for our praise. “Heaven and earth are full of your glory,” and we are not passive onlookers, but participants in this glory. Catholic prayer no longer assigns this angelic hymn to a choir, but gives it to you to sing. Even if your voice is thought to be suitable only for a well-insulated shower stall, you are called into this song.

We are born to sing—just listen to a baby testing the full range of newly-discovered vocal abilities. Soon we get shushed and hushed into quiet, and given lots of messages that our voices are unwanted, and that we need to raise our hands in order to be heard. All of that is overturned in liturgy, the place where God waits to hear us come alive in the song of all creation. In heaven, everyone’s in the choir; why not start practicing now?

“Tending Broken Hearts in a Broken Church: Skills for Pastoral Ministry”

As we acknowledge deep wounds and painful memories caused by the abuse of power in our Church, how do we respond to those who turn to us for help, understanding, healing, and guidance?

Saturday, February 9, 2019
9:00 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.
Villa Maria del Mar
21918 E. Cliff Drive Santa Cruz, CA 95062
831 475-1236
$15 suggested donation at the door
(with optional lunch at 12:30 for $15)

This workshop, designed primarily for lay pastoral ministers and those doing ministry, will engage participants in an exploration of current realities, assumptions and challenges, appropriate boundaries and responses, and specific pastoral skills needed for effective ministry in our times. Hotelogie will include personal reflection, pastoral skill review, engagement with practical scenarios, and group interaction. We will return to our places of ministry with a deeper awareness of what is required of us to respond effectively and appropriately to those who open their broken hearts to us as representatives and ministers of the church.
