Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
July 28, 2019

You were buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the power of God, who raised him from the dead.
—Colossians 2:12

ASKING FOR HELP

The Beatitudes praise the poor in spirit. One characteristic of those who are poor in spirit is their ability to ask for help; they know when others can provide what they lack. Today’s readings encourage us to practice poverty in spirit by asking God for what we need. What could be more natural than to ask God for good things? God is, after all, the inventor of goodness and the giver of all good things.

Asking God for help puts us in conversation with God. These conversations take many forms. The reading from Genesis shows Abraham bantering with God like a skilled negotiator, while Saint Paul’s letter to the Colossians praises God for answering us even when we don’t deserve it. In Saint Luke’s Gospel, Jesus not only gives us words to use in our conversations with God (the Our Father), but also promises that God always listens to our prayers.

TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — Abraham bargains with God to spare the city (Genesis 18:20-32).
Psalm — Lord, on the day I called for help, you answered me (Psalm 138).
Second Reading — You were buried with Christ in baptism, in which you were also raised with Christ (Colossians 2:12-14).
Gospel — Everyone who asks, receives; and the one who seeks, finds (Luke 11:1-13).

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The pilgrim experience of going by foot to Santiago de Compostella, the shrine of St. James, reached its high point this week at the feast of the Apostle, with tens of thousands of pilgrims on the road. Typically, they cover twelve to twenty miles a day through rough territory. The difficult journey and the often primitive lodging facilities are made bearable by the joy of the pilgrims, their songs and prayers. When their journey is documented properly, they receive the scallop shell, a reminder not only of James the fisherman, but also his call to fish for human beings and to baptize the nations. In the Middle Ages, those who wore this badge on their hats were granted lodging and hospitality wherever they went. Next to the palm, the sign of a Jerusalem pilgrim, the scallop shell was most highly prized.

In the Middle Ages, some people so enjoyed the pilgrim road, although it was filled with discomfort and danger, that they spent most of their lives on the road. Today, some people take up the route for exercise, but are drawn gradually into the spirituality of the journey. As you make your summer travels, always fold in an element of pilgrimage: a long walk through beautiful countryside, a visit to a church, a prayer of gratitude for your journey through life’s hills and valleys.

DECEPTION

Indeed, it is not in human nature to deceive others for any long time, without in a measure deceiving ourselves, too.
—John Henry Newman

ADVERSITY

Adversity has the effect of eliciting talents which, in prosperous circumstances, would have lain dormant.
—Horace

A Message from Christine

The last 12 1/2 years here at St. Anne have been quite a journey for me. Bittersweet, but one that I have learned to embrace. It has taught me many things both good and not so good. To quote a few verses from Ecclesiastes 3:1-9 “There is an appointed time for everything and a time for every affair in the heavens. A time to plant and a time to uproot, a time to keep and a time to let go.”

My time has come according to God’s plan. I am retiring from my responsibility of as an employee here.

I found so many true friends here in our community, friends in Christ, bonded with so many parishioners, volunteers, and the many young people in the Middle School Faith Formation program. But what was important was serving God with them in so many ways. It was so gratifying that through the difficult times I relied on this community for support and comfort. For that I am “thankful.”

There is no denying that the satisfaction I got from working as a Faith Formation Coordinator stemmed from my interaction with the students and catechists. I loved the challenge and I have learned so much from these kids. I can only hope they have learned something from me. It was never just a job for me but a ministry. As we are called to be disciples of God’s work here on earth, my main thought was to be a good example to everyone. To be compassionate, understanding and forgiving.

As I spend my last few days here, I cant help but ponder on the thought of the past years. Grateful? The word does not suffice what I want to express to the community of St. Anne. I am thankful to everyone who in one way or another help nurture my spiritual growth and made my life more meaningful. My journey ends here but my heart will forever remember all the good things, all the good people who have welcomed me and helped be part of a robust and flourishing faith community which I was a part of, all for the glory of God!

Thank you, all for allowing me to serve you. You will be in my prayers everyday.

May God Bless you!

Yours in Christ,

Christine Suarez

Happy Retirement!
